A motion was made and seconded to dispense with the reading of the Minutes and to approve the Minutes of the meeting of the Board held on May 7, 2002.

The motion carried. (Exhibit No. 2104.)

A motion was made and seconded to adopt the following resolution:

RESOLVED, That Docket No. CI-RA-02-1, Exhibit No. 2105, authorizing implementation for the expansion of the Revenue Assurance plan of insurance to cover cotton and rice with reinsurance, risk subsidy, and administrative and operating subsidy in amounts and under such terms and conditions as determined appropriate by the Board beginning with the 2003 crop year in the states of Arizona, Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico, and Oklahoma for cotton and Arkansas and Louisiana for rice, as authorized under section 508(h) of the Federal Crop Insurance Act, is hereby approved conditioned upon American Farm Bureau Insurance Services, Inc., working with the expert reviewers and the Risk Management Agency personnel to determine an appropriate adjustment to the premium rates for cotton and rice in the above-stated states and reaching agreement and implementing the rate adjustment for the 2003 crop year. If no rate adjustment has been proposed or agreement is not reached within 30 days of the date of this conditional approval, American Farm Bureau Insurance Services, Inc., may bring their policies back to the Board for a vote on unconditional approval or disapproval AND BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board delegates to the Manager the authority to make such technical policy changes as are necessary to make the policy legally sufficient.

The motion carried. (Board Memorandum No. 657; Exhibit No. 2105.) Board member Roger Swartz recused himself from voting.

A motion was made and seconded to adopt the following resolution:

RESOLVED, That the submitting entity is notified of the Board's intent to disapprove Docket No. CI-COP-Cotton-02-1, Exhibit No. 2106, on the basis that the Board has been unable to make a determination that the submission complies with all applicable provisions of the Federal Crop Insurance Act, the interests of producers are adequately protected, the premium rates are actuarially appropriate, and that program integrity will be protected for the reasons set forth in the expert, Risk Management Agency, and Office of the General Counsel reviews, and the concerns raised by the Board in Executive Session. This notice of intent to disapprove will also be provided to the submitting entity in writing.

The motion carried. (Board Memorandum No. 658; Exhibit No. 2106.)

Bruce Babcock left the meeting at 2:09 p.m.

R&D Contractor Joe Davis, AgriLogic, Inc., provided an overview of the Cost of Production Insurance Plan (COP) for Cotton.

Bob Odom left the meeting at 2:20 p.m.
A motion was made and seconded to adopt the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The Federal Crop Insurance Act (Act) requires the Board to enter into contracts with persons experienced as actuaries and in underwriting for reviews of any policy or plan of insurance, or any related material or modification of a policy or plan of insurance proposed to be offered under the Act, NOW THEREFORE BE IT

RESOLVED: That: 1) the Manager of the Corporation be authorized to take such action as necessary to enter into and execute contracts with the persons or entities on the attached list, or the alternates in case the proposed persons are not available, to review the proposed FCIC Cost of Production Insurance Plan for Cotton prior to Board action; and 2) the attached task order statement of work be used to execute the contracts.

The motion carried. (Board Memorandum No. 659; Exhibit No. 2107.)

A motion was made and seconded to adopt the following resolution:

RESOLVED, That Docket No. CI-AGR-02-1, Exhibit No. 2108, authorizing expansion of the pilot AGR insurance program into Fresno, Kern, Riverside, San Diego, San Joaquin, San Luis Obispo, Tulare, and Ventura counties in California; Crawford, Columbia, Erie, Fayette, Lancaster, Schuylkill, Westmoreland, and York counties in Pennsylvania beginning with the 2003 insurance year, as required under section 10004 of the Farm Security and Rural Investment Act of 2002, is hereby approved with the eligibility for AGR coverage in all counties and states where AGR is and will be available limited to individual policies that have a liability of $6.5 million or less. The Board is concerned about the increased liability in current loss ratio and directs the Risk Management Agency to conduct a study of the insurance experience after the 2002 insurance year to determine whether program changes are needed.

The motion carried. (Board Memorandum No. 660; Exhibit No. 2108.)

Expert Reviewer Keith Coble provided an overview of the cotton study conducted on the impact of the cotton crop insurance program on cotton planted acreage. That report is available to the public on RMA's website:  http://www.rma.usda.gov/aboutrma/fcic/. (Exhibit No. 2110.)
A motion was made and seconded to adopt the following resolution:

WHEREAS, Section 505(e) of the Federal Crop Insurance Act (Act) requires the Board to enter into contracts for reviews of any policy or plan of insurance, or any related material or modification of a policy or plan of insurance proposed to be offered under the Act by persons experienced as actuaries and in underwriting, NOW THEREFORE BE IT

RESOLVED: That 1) the Manager of the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation be directed to perform the activities necessary to enter into contracts with persons or entities on the attached list of proposed expert reviewers, and 2) the attached general statement of work be used to structure the contracts.

The motion carried. (Board Memorandum No. 661; Exhibit No. 2109.)

There being no further business to come before the Board, the meeting adjourned at 2:55 p.m., to meet again in August 2002 in Washington, D.C.
