September 30 Sales Closing Date Near For Crop Insurance in South Carolina

VALDOSTA, Ga., September 12, 2013 — The United States Department of Agriculture's (USDA) Risk Management Agency (RMA) reminds farmers of the September 30 sales closing date for crop insurance. This sales closing date applies to crop insurance policies for barley in Anderson, Laurens, Newberry, Oconee, Orangeburg and York counties; rye in Aiken, Chesterfield, and Edgefield counties; and oats and wheat in all counties. The sales closing date is the last day to buy a new policy or change an existing policy's coverage level.

Crop insurance is sold and delivered solely through private crop insurance agents. Contact a local crop insurance agent for more information about the program. A list of crop insurance agents is available at all USDA Service Centers or on the RMA web site at www.rma.usda.gov/tools/agents/.
