May 1 Sales Closing Date Near for Nursery Crop Insurance in Florida

VALDOSTA, Ga., April 17, 2014 — The USDA's Risk Management Agency (RMA) reminds farmers of the May 1, 2014, sales closing date for 2015 Nursery Multi-Peril Crop Insurance (MPCI) coverage. This deadline is for current policyholders only. New policyholders may buy nursery insurance at any time; however new applications are subject to a 30-day waiting period before coverage begins. The sales closing date is the last day to change an existing policy's coverage level. More information on nursery crop insurance is available at www.rma.usda.gov/policies/nursery/index.html.

Crop insurance is sold and delivered solely through private crop insurance agents. Contact a local crop insurance agent for more information about the program. A list of crop insurance agents is available at all USDA Service Centers or on the RMA website at: www.rma.usda.gov/tools/agents/.
