FROM: Tim B. Witt /s/Tim B. Witt 12/16/99
Deputy Administrator

SUBJECT: Adjusted Gross Revenue Pilot Program-Expansion

Today the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation Board of Directors approved expansion of the Adjusted Gross Revenue (AGR) Insurance Pilot Program in several counties in Pennsylvania for the 2000 insurance year. The 2000 insurance year sales closing date for these Pennsylvania counties is March 15, 2000.

1. The new Adjusted Gross Revenue counties for the 2000 AGR insurance year are:

Pennsylvania	Berks, Carbon, Lackawanna, Lehigh, Monroe, and Northampton
--------------	--

Rates for this expansion area will be released in the Actuarial Data Master (ADM) by COB December 17, 1999.

There is a new tool on the RMA Web Site under Tools/Calculators, Premium Calculation Software for 2000, that allows the download of records needed for the premium calculator from the most recent ADM by state and county. This file is then loaded into the premium calculator.

2. The following state was inadvertently omitted from the list of AGR pilot areas referenced in R&D-99-061:

Massachusetts	All counties

3. An updated crop list is attached. This list replaces the last page of the Adjusted Gross Revenue Standards Handbook FCIC-18050 (10-1998). Please refer to R&D-99-061 for information on the Adjusted Gross Revenue (AGR) Pilot Program including previously approved pilot areas and web site locations of the policy, special provisions, standards handbook, premium calculator, actuarial data master, and training materials.
